A
REGISTER FOR THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT:

WITH AN ALMANACK,
For the Year of our LORD,
1 7 8 5.

Calculated for the Meridian of New-London, Lat. 41. 25. North,

By NATHAN DABOLL,
Teacher of the Mathematics at the Academic School in Plainfield.

NEW-LONDON:
Printed and Sold by T. GREEN, near the COURT-HOUSE.

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE Editor of the ensuing Register having been repeatedly solicited to undertake a publication of this nature, has, 'till now, declined the attempt, from a fear that the sale of the performance would be inadequate to the expence of its complement and appearing from the press. Though now he is far from being confident that the work will meet with the encouragement he wishes; yet certain that it may be of great utility, and relying upon the favor of the public, he has cheerfully gone through with the expence. Should it be favorably received he begs leave to encourage a continuance of the publication, and he does not doubt but that the next may appear under very advantageous improvements. Though he has endeavored that the present should be correct, yet he cannot say that it is either perfect in its plan, or finished in its parts:—he has particularly to regret that the military list is incomplete:—But, should his wishes be succeeded, he flatters himself that his next Register will need none of these apologies.

He cannot but acknowledge, very gratefully, his obligations to those Gentlemen who have favored him with any of the particulars in this collection. Assistance in this respect, as it will be essentially needed,--and any observations which may be of advantage to the Editor's design, should it be prosecuted, will be thankfully received in future, and suitably improved.

New-London, January, 1785.

HIS EXCELLENCY

DELEGATES to the CONGRESS of the UNITED STATES of AMERICA, chosen in April, 1784.

The Honorable

William Pitkin,
Jedidiah Strong,
John Treadwell,
Joseph Platt Cook,

James Wadsworth,
William Williams,
Charles C. Chandler, (Esquires.

[By the laws of this State, the Freemen in the counties of New-London and Windham, are to meet in their respective towns on the second Tuesday of September annually; those in the counties of Hartford,
New-Haven, Fairfield and Litchfield, on the third Tuesday of September annually, to choose twenty gentlemen to stand in nomination for Assistants, and twelve to stand in nomination for Delegates in Congress; which nominations are printed and sent to each town in the State; and on the Monday next following the first Tuesday in April annually, is Free-men's Meeting throughout the State, when twelve gentlemen out of the twenty in nomination for Assistants are chosen Assistants for that year, and seven out of the nomination for Delegates are chosen Delegates, any five of whom to serve in Congress for that year.

At the above meeting in April, the Governor and Lieut. Governor are chosen out of the freemen at large.

The qualifications for Freemen are, that they be at least twenty-one years of age, possessed of freehold estate to the value of 40s. per ann. or £.40 personal estate in the general list of estates in that year where-in they desire to be admitted Freemen; or are possessed of estate as aforesaid, and by law excused from putting it into the list; and being of quiet and peaceable behaviour, and producing a certificate thereof from the select-men of the town that they are thus qualified, are intitled to take the Freemen's oath, which must be done in open Freemen's Meeting; but previous to this they must have taken the oath of fidelity to the State.]

The gentlemen nominated by the votes of the Freemen of this State, Assistants, to stand for election in May, 1785, as sent into the Assembly in October, 1784, are as follow, viz.

Total, 3,046,678 Total, 756,669

The Total Number of the whole Race of Mankind now on the surface of the Globe, is computed to be 898,200,000.

If we reckon with the Ancients, that a Generation lasts 30 Years, in that space 898,200,000 Men will be born and die, consequently 82,027 will die every day.

A general Description of America.

THIS great western continent, frequently denominated the new world, extends from the 80th degree north, to the 56th degree of south latitude, and where its breadth is known, from the 35 to the 136th degree of west longitude, from London, stretching between 8 and 9000 miles in length length, and in its greatest breadth 3690. It sees both hemispheres, has two summers and a double winter, and enjoys all the variety of climates which the earth affords. It is washed by the two great oceans. To the eastward it has the Atlantic, which divides it from Europe and Africa. To the west it has the Pacific, or great south sea, by which it is separated from Asia. By these seas, it may, and does, carry on a direct commerce with the other three parts of the world. It is composed of two great continents, one on the north, the other upon the south, which are joined by the kingdom of Mexico, which forms a sort of isthmus 1500 miles long, and in one part of Darien, so extremely narrow, as to make the communication between the two oceans by no means difficult, being only 60 miles over. In the great gulph, which is formed between the isthmus and the northern and southern continents, lie an infinite multitude of islands, many of them large, most of them fertile, and denominated the west Indies; in contradistinction to the countries and islands of Asia, beyond the Cape of Good Hope, which are called the east Indies.

The DEFINITIVE T R E A T Y

Between Great-Britain and the United States of America; sign'd at Paris, Sept. 3, 1783.

In the Name of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity.

IT having pleased the divine Providence to dispose the hearts of the Most Serene and Most Potent Prince George the Third, by the Grace of God King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, Duke of Brunswick and Lunenburgh, Arch-Treasurer and Prince Elector of the Holy Roman Empire &c. and of the United States of America, to forget all past misunderstandings and differences that have unhappily interrupted the good correspondence and friendship which they mutually wish to restore, and to establish such a beneficial and satisfactory intercourse between the two countries, upon the ground of reciprocal advantages and mutual convenience, as may promote and secure to both perpetual peace and harmony; and having for this desirable end already laid the foundation of peace and reconciliation, by the Provisional Articles signed at Paris on the 30th of November, 1782, by the Commissioners empowered on each part, which Articles were agreed to be inserted in, and to constitute the Treaty of peace proposed to be concluded between the Crown of Great-Britain and the said United States, but which Treaty was not to be concluded until terms of Peace should be agreed upon between Great-Britain and France, and his Britannic Majesty should be ready to conclude such Treaty accordingly: and the Treaty between Great-Britain and France having since been concluded, his Britannic Majesty and the United States of America, in order to carry into full effect the Provisional Articles above-mentioned, according to the tenor thereof, have constituted and appointed, that is to say, his Britannic Majesty on his part, David Hartley, Esq; Member of the parliament of Great-Britain, and the said United States on their part, John Adams, Esq; late a Commissioner of the United States of America at the Court of Versailles, late Delegate in Congress from the State of Massachusetts, and Chief Justice of the said State, and Minister Plenipotentiary of the said United States to their High Mightinesses the States General of the United Netherlands; Benjamin Franklin, Esq; late Delegate in Congress, from the State of Pennsylvania, President of the Convention of the said State, & Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States of America at the Court of Versailles; and John Jay, Esq; late President of Congress, and Chief Justice of the State of New-York, and Minister Plenipotentiary from the said United States at the Court of Madrid, to be the Plenipotentiaries for concluding and signing the present definitive treaty; who, after having reciprocally communicated their respective full powers, have agreed upon and confirmed the following Articles.

ART. I. His Britannic Majesty acknowledges the said United States; viz. New-Hampshire, Massachusetts-Bay, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North-Carolina, South-Carolina, and Georgia, to be free, sovereign, and independent States; that he treats with them as such, and for himself, his heirs and successors, relinquishes all claims to the government, propriety, and territorial rights of the same, and every part thereof

ART. II. And that all disputes which might arise in future on the subject of the boundaries of the said United States may be prevented, it is hereby agreed and declared, that the following are and shall be their boundaries, viz. From the North-west angle of Nova-Scotia, viz. That angle which is formed by a line drawn due north from the source of St. Croix River to the Highlands, along the said Highlands, which divide those rivers that empty themselves into the river St. Lawrence, from those which fall into the Atlantic Ocean, to the North-westernmost head of Connecticut-River; thence down along the middle of that river to the forty-fifth degree of north latitude; from thence by a line due west on said latitude, until it strikes the river Iroquois or Cataraugy; ~~thence along the middle of the said river~~ into Lake Ontario; through the middle of said lake until it strikes the communication by water between that lake and Lake Erie; thence along the middle of said communication into Lake Erie; through the middle of said lake, until it arrives at the water communication between that lake and Lake Huron, thence through the middle of said lake to the water communication between that lake and Lake Superior; thence through Lake Superior northward of the Isles Royal and Philipeaux to the Long Lake; thence through the middle of said Long Lake and the water communication between it and the Lake of the Woods, to the said Lake of the Woods; thence through the said Lake to the most north-western point thereof, and from thence on a due west course to the River Mississippi; thence by a line to be drawn along the middle of the said River Mississippi, until it shall intersect the northernmost part of the thirty-first degree of north latitude. South, by a line to be drawn due east from the determination of the line last mentioned in the latitude of thirty-one degrees north of the equator, to the middle of the River Apalachicola or Catahouche; thence along the middle thereof to its junction with the Flint-river; thence straight to the head of St. Mary's River; and thence down along the middle of St. Mary's River to the Atlantic Ocean. East, by a line to be drawn along the middle of the River St. Croix from its mouth in the Bay of Fundy, to its source, and from its source directly north to the aforesaid Highlands which divide the rivers that fall into the Atlantic Ocean from those which ~~fall into the River St. Lawrence~~, comprehending all islands within twenty leagues of any part of the shores of the United States, and lying between lines to be drawn due east from the points where the aforesaid boundaries between Nova-Scotia on the one part, and East-Florida on the other, shall respectively touch the Bay of Fundy and the Atlantic Ocean, excepting such islands as now are or heretofore have been within the limits of the said Province of Nova-Scotia.

ART. III. It is agreed that the people of the United States shall continue to enjoy unmolested the right to take fish of every kind on the Grand Bank, and on all the other banks of Newfoundland, also in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, and all other places in the sea, where the inhabitants of both countries used at any time heretofore to fish: And also, that the inhabitants of the United States shall have liberty to take fish of every kind on such part of the coast of Newfoundland as British fishermen shall use (but not to dry or cure the same on that Island) and also on the coasts, bays and creeks of all his Britannic Majesty's dominions in America; and that the Ame-can fishermen shall have liberty to dry and cure fish in any of the unsettled bays, harbours and creeks of Nova-Scotia, Magdalen Islands and Labrador, so long as the same shall remain unsettled; but so soon as the same or either of them shall be settled, it shall not be lawful for the said fishermen to dry or cure fish at such settlement, without a previous agreement for that purpose with the inhabitants, proprietors or possessors of the ground.

ART. IV. It is agreed that the creditors on either side shall meet with no lawful impediment to the recovery of the full value, in sterling money, of all bona fide debts heretofore contracted.

ART. V. It is agreed that Congress shall earnestly recommend it to the Legislatures of the respective States, to provide for the restitution of all estates, rights and properties, which have been confiscated, belonging to real British subjects; and also of the estates, rights and properties of persons resident in districts in possession of his Majesty's arms, and who have not borne arms against the said United States; and that persons of any other description shall have free liberty to go to any part or parts of the Thirteen United States, and therein to remain twelve months unmolested in their endeavours to obtain the restitution of such of their estates, rights and properties, as may have been confiscated; and that Congress shall also earnestly recommend to the several states a reconsideration and revision of all Acts or Laws respecting the premises, so as to render the said Acts or Laws perfectly consistent, not only with justice and equity, but with that spirit of conciliation, which, on the return of the blessings of peace should universally prevail: And that Congress shall also earnestly recommend to the several states, that the estates, rights and properties of such last mentioned persons shall be restored to them, they refunding to any persons who may now be in possession the bona fide price (where any has been given) which such persons may have paid on purchasing any of the said lands, rights or properties since the confiscation. And it is agreed, that all persons who may have any interest in confiscated lands, either by debts, marriage settlements, or otherwise, shall meet with no lawful impediment in the prosecution of their just rights.

ART. VI. That there shall be no future confiscations made, nor any prosecutions commenced against any person or persons for, or by reason of the part which he or they may have taken in the present war; and that no person shall, on that account, uffer any future loss or damage, either in his person, liberty or property; and that those who may be in confinement on such charges, at the time of the ratification of the Treaty in America, shall be immediately set at liberty, and the prosecution so commenced be discontinued.

ART. VII. There shall be a firm and perpetual peace between his Britannic Majesty and the said States, and between the subjects of the one, and the citizens of the other; wherefore all hostilities both by sea and land shall, from henceforth, cease; all prisoners on both sides shall be set at liberty, and his Britannic Majesty shall, with all convenient speed, and without causing any destruction, or carrying away any Negroes or other property of the American inhabitants, withdraw all his armies, garrisons and fleets from the said United States, and from every post, place and harbour within the same, leaving in all fortifications the American artillery that may be therein; and shall also order and cause all archives, records, deeds, and papers belonging to any of the said States, or their citizens, which in the course of the war may have fallen into the hands of his officers, to be forthwith restored, and delivered to the proper States and persons to whom they belong.

ART. VIII. The navigation of the river Mississippi, from its source to the ocean, shall forever remain free and open to the subjects of Great-Britain, and the citizens of the United States.

ART. IX. In case it should so happen that any place or territory belonging to Great-Britain, or to the United States, should have been conquered by the arms of either from the other, before the arrival of the said Provisional Articles in America, it is agreed that the same shall be restored without difficulty, and without requiring any compensation.

ART. X. The solemn Ratifications of the present Treaty, expedit in good and due form, shall be exchanged between the contracting Parties in the space of six months, or sooner, if possible, to be computed from the day of the signature of the present Treaty. In witness whereof we the undersigned, their Ministers Plenipotentiary, have in their name, and in virtue of our full powers, signed with our hands the present Definitive Treaty, and caused the Seals of our Arms to be affixed thereto. Done at Paris, September 3d, 1783.

ECLIPSES for the Year 1785

THERE will be only two ECLIPSES this Year, and both of the SUN, as follows :

- I. The first will be in the 21st Degree of February 9th, at 7h. 54m. in the Morning, invisible to us by Reason of the Moon's South Latitude ; but at the Island of St. Helena, it will be visible, and almost total.
- II. The second will be in the 13th Degree of Ω August the 4th, at 9 o'Clock at Night, consequently invisible to us ; but in the great Pacific Ocean, near the Island St. Pedro, the Sun will be visibly and totally eclipsed.

Difference of HIGH-WATER at several Places from NEW-LONDON.

AT New-York, Tarpaulin-Cove, and Say-Brook Bar, the same, as New-London,—at Rhode-Island and Amboy, 40 Minutes sooner,—at Providence, 25 Minutes sooner,—at Sandy-Hook, 2 Hours and 40 Minutes sooner,—at Albany, 3 Hours and 10 Minutes sooner,—at Boston, 2 Hours and 20 Minutes later,—at Guilford and New-Haven, 2 Hours and 50 Minutes later,—at Philadelphia, 5 Hours and 20 Minutes later,—at Norwich-Landing 45 Minutes later,—at South-old Harbour, 2 Hours and 10 Minutes later.

[By the laws of this state, the Freemen in the counties of New-London and Windham, are to meet in their respective towns on the second Tuesday of September annually; those in the counties of Hartford, New-Haven, Fairfield, Litchfield and Middlesex, on the third Tuesday of September annually, to choose twenty gentlemen to stand in nomination for Assistants, and twelve to stand in nomination for Delegates in Congress; which nominations are printed and sent to each town in the state; and on the Monday next following the first Tuesday in April annually, is Freemen's Meeting throughout the state, when twelve gentlemen out of the twenty in nomination for Assistants are chosen Assistants for that year, and seven out of the nomination for Delegates are chosen Delegates, any five of whom to serve in Congress for that year.

At the above meeting in April, the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor are chosen out of the Freemen at large.

The qualifications for Freemen are, that they be at least twenty-one years of age, possessed of freehold estate to the value of 40s. per ann. or £.40 personal estate in the general list of estates in that year wherein they desire to be admitted Freemen; or are possessed of estate as aforesaid, and by law excused from putting it into the list; and being of quiet and peaceable behaviour, and producing a certificate thereof from the select-men of the town that they are thus qualified, are intitled to take the Freeman's oath, which must be done in open Freemen's Meeting; but previous to this they must have taken the oath of fidelity to the state.

The gentlemen nominated by the votes of the Freemen of this State, Assistants, to stand for election in May, 1786, as sent in to the Assembly in October, 1785, are as follow, viz.

The following Scheme is deemed to exhibit the whole race of Mankind now on the surface of the Globe

Europe contains	-	-	138,200,00
Asia,	-	-	450,000,00
Africa,	-	-	150,000,00
America,	-	-	160,000,00

Total, 898,200,00

If we reckon with the ancients, that a generation lasts thirty years, in that space 898,200,00 persons will be born and die ; consequently 8027 will die every day.

A short description of NEW-ENGLAND.

The general Name, NEW-ENGLAND, comprehends the present STATES of

NEW-HAMPSHIRE,

RHODE-ISLAND AND PRO-VIDENCE PLANTATIONS, And CONNECTICUT.

MASSACHUSETTS,

THE first effectual settlement of Europeans in this tract of Country, was made at the town of Plymouth (or New Plymouth, as it was then called) A. D. 1620, by some English people, who, to avoid persecution in England, fled to Holland, and afterwards removed to America. They landed at Cape Cod in the month of November, and suffered, during the winter, almost incredible hardships. Upon their arrival, they drew up a writing, in which they recognized King James as their King, formed themselves into "a civil body politic," for the purpose of government, and thus laid the foundation of the Colony of New-Plymouth. About the same time a Corporation was erected in England by the name of "The Council established at Plymouth, in the County of Devon, for the planting, ruling, ordering and governing of New-England;" to whom the King gave all the country from the 40th to the 48th degree of north latitude, by a patent bearing date November 3d, 1620. This Council retained the powers granted them by the crown, until the year 1635, when they resigned their charter, having first made many grants of land to adventurers who proposed forming settlements in New-England; among others they granted the Province of Maine, to Robert Gorges, in 1622, Massachusetts-Bay, to Sir Henry Roswell, &c. in 1627, &c. &c. Plymouth Colony and Massachusetts, were the most respectable settlements which were made in consequence of these grants:

alibough the former was the eldest, the latter soon became the most populous; and emigrants from it settled upon the River Connecticut, and laid the foundation of the Colony of that name, so early as about the year 1635. Hartford was the capital of Connecticut, as New-Haven was of New-Haven Colony, which was founded about the same time. The Dutch who had settled at Manhattans (now New York) had a trading house at Hartford, and considered both that place and New-Haven as within their limits, and subject to their jurisdiction. This occasioned some uneasiness, and as the native Indians also were very troublesome, the English found union among themselves essential to their safety, and therefore, in the year 1643, the four Colonies of

Plymouth,

Massachusetts,

Connecticut, and

New-Haven,

agreed upon Articles of Confederation, whereby a Congress was formed, consisting of two Commissioners from each Colony, who were chosen annually, and, when met, were considered as the Representatives of "The United Colonies of New-England." The powers delegated to the Commissioners were much the same as those now possessed by Congress; and were exercised by them till about the time of the Revolution in England.

Of NEW-HAMPSHIRE.

This state was granted by the Council of Plymouth, to Capt. John Mason: The capital of it is Portsmouth, situate upon the River Piscataqua, which has a very fine harbour, and this, indeed, is the only port of any consequence in the State.

Of MASSACHUSETTS.

The state of Massachusetts comprehends the colony of Massachusetts Bay, granted by the Council of Plymouth, to Roswell and others, in 1627; the colony of Plymouth, granted by the same Council, to William Bradford, in 1629; and, the Province of Main, granted by the same Council to Robert Gorges, in 1622. The two latter, together with the territory of Sagadahock, were annexed to the former by a Royal Charter dated October 7th, 1691. Boston is the capital of this state, it is built upon a peninsula of an irregular form, at the bottom of a large bay, contains about 2000 dwelling-houses, and near 15,000 inhabitants.

Of RHODE-ISLAND and PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS.

The first settlers of this state, were inhabitants of some of the other New England Colonies, from whence they removed on account of a difference in their religious sentiments. Some of them fixed themselves at Providence, and others on Rhode-Island; and their settlements were distinguished by the names of Providence and Rhode-Island Plantations. The town of Providence was the capital of the former, and Newport of the latter; but in the 15th of Char. II. a charter passed the Great Seal, uniting the two settlements under the same government, by the name of "The English Colony of Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations."

Description of CONNECTICUT.

	Miles.		Degrees.
Length - -	90	} between	40 and 43 N. Lat.
Breadth - -	60		72 and 74 W. Long.

THIS STATE comprehends the old Colonies of CONNECTICUT and NEW-HAVEN, and is divided into eight Counties, viz: Hartford, New Haven, New-London, Fairfield, Windham, Litchfield, Middlesex and Tolland.

The face of the country is generally very uneven, and in many places extremely stony, yet the soil is fertile, and the produce plentiful: the latter consists of wheat, rye, indian corn, oats, barley, flax, hemp, &c. The large quantities of pasture and mowing grounds which this state affords, enable the inhabitants to raise great numbers of neat cattle and horses, many of which are driven to other places, or sent to the West-Indies for sale. Their principal exports, besides live cattle and horses, are sheep, salted pork (for which Connecticut is famous) and beef, lumber, pot and pearl ashes, flax seed, &c. in return for which they usually receive European and East and West-India goods.

The old Colony of Connecticut was originally settled by emigrants from Massachusetts-Bay, about the year 1635; and in 1662 the colony of New-Haven was united with it, and the common name Connecticut given to both. Since union the state has had two capitals, Hartford and New-Haven, which are, alternately, the seat of government. The former is situated on Connecticut River, 50 miles from the sea, and contains between 4 and 500 houses, which are mostly built of wood (as the houses in New-England generally are) but have a neat appearance. The latter contains about 500 houses, and is situated on the sound which divides Connecticut from Long-Island. This city is neat and regular, but as it lies in an hollow, cannot be seen from any great distance. In 1700 a college was founded here, called Yale College, which at present is respectable among the American Universities.— The Rev. Dr. Ezra Stiles is president.

Connecticut is bounded on the north by Massachusetts, on the east by Rhode-Island, on the west by New-York, and on the south by Long-Island sound.

Besides the cities of Hartford and New-Haven, three others have been lately incorporated, viz.

New-London, situated at the mouth of the river Thames, which has the best harbour in Connecticut.

Middletown, elegantly situated on the west bank of Connecticut River; and Norwich, a manufacturing town, 14 miles distant from New-London, and situated on a branch of the river Thames, called Sbetucket.

The principal rivers in the state are, the Connecticut, Thames, and Housatonic or Stratford River. The first is above 300 miles in length.

The number inhabitants is estimated at 220,000, whereof 6000 are Indians and Negroes.

All religions, not inconsistent with the peace and good order of the state, are tolerated here.

The General Court or Assembly, in which the supreme legislative authority of the state is vested, consists of two branches, called the Upper and Lower Houses. The upper house is composed of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and twelve Assistants, all chosen annually by the Freeman; and the lower house consists of the Representatives of the towns, most of which send two, the others one: these are chosen twice in a year. The stated times for holding the General Assembly, is May and October.

Account of the Settlement and Governors of CONNECTICUT and NEW-HAVEN.

The Settlement of Connecticut begun 1635

The people of Watertown, (Massa) fix on a place upon Connecticut River, to which they determined to remove, and applied for liberty, 1634

Sixty men, women and children, with neat cattle, horses and swine, move to the river, October, 1635

JOHN WINTHROP, Esq. appointed by Lord Say and Seal, took possession of Connecticut River, and begins to erect buildings, and a fort at Say-Brook, Nov. 3.

A vessel arrives from England, sent by Lord Say, &c. with men, provisions, and all things necessary to erect a fort, and secure the mouth of the river, 28.

The Dutch sent a sloop to take possession, but the company having mounted several pieces of ordnance on shore, prevented them.

The first court was held at New-town, (now Hartford) April 26, 1636

The Planters make articles of government, and, by compact, form themselves into a commonwealth. Jan. 14, 1639

By the articles of government, it was determined that the two General Courts should be annually on the second Thursdays of April and September: and that no person should be chosen governor more than once in two years.

The first General Court of Election, April 6, 1639
Governors of CONNECTICUT, until the Charter.

The Hon. John Haynes, Esq. elected, April 6, 1639

The Hon. Edward Hopkins, Esq. 1640

The Hon. John Haynes, Esq. 1641

The Hon. George Wyllys, Esq. 1642

The Hon. John Haynes, Esq. 1643

From this time, to 1655, Governor Hopkins and Governor Haynes, were chosen Governors successively every other year: when one was Governor the other was Deputy-Governor.

The Hon. Thomas Wells, Esq. 1655

The Hon. John Webster, Esq. 1656

The time of the General Election was altered.

The Hon. John Winthrop, Esq. 1657

The Hon. Thomas Wells, Esq. 1658

The Hon. John Winthrop, Esq. 1659

He was annually elected till charter privileges were granted by king Cha. II. and afterwards till his death, April 5. 1676.

N B. The law providing that no person should be chosen governor more than one year in two, was by the consent of the freemen repealed 1659.

Settlement and Governors of New-Haven.

The settlement began April, 1638

The first public worship in this new plantation was attended on Lord's day, under a large spreading oak. Mr. Davenport preached from Mat. 3. 1. On the temptations of the wilderness.

Articles are made between Mr. Eaton, and the Planters, and Mameugin Sachem of Quinopicke, (New-Haven) and his Council, by which the land was granted them.

GREEN's
Register,
For the STATE of CONNECTICUT:

WITH AN Almanack,
For the Year of our LORD,
1 7 9 0.
Calculated for the Meridian of New-
London, Lat. 41. 25. North,
By NATHAN DABOLL.

NEW-LONDON:
PRINTED by T. GREEN & SON.

FREEMEN'S MEETINGS in the State of CON- NECTICUT, as established by law, viz.

IN the counties of New-London, Windham, Litchfield, and Tolland, on the second Tuesday in September.

In the counties of Hartford, New-Haven, Fairfield, and Middlesex, on the third Tuesday, in September.

And in every town in the state, on the Monday next following the first Tuesday in April, at 9 o'clock in the morning.

The qualifications for Freemen are, that they be at least twenty-one years of age, possessed of freehold estate to the value of 40s. per ann. or £.40 personal estate in the general list of estates in that year wherein they desire to be admitted Freemen; or are possessed of estate as aforesaid, and by law excused from putting it into the list,—being of quiet and peaceable behaviour, and producing a certificate thereof from the select-men of the town that they are thus qualified, are intitled to take the Freeman's oath, which must be done in open Freemen's Meeting; but previous to this they must have taken the oath of fidelity to the state.

Register.

CONSTITUTION of the UNITED STATES of AMERICA.

We the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I.

SECT. 1. ALL legislative powers herein granted, shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

SECT. 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states; and the electors, in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature.

No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each state shall have at least one representative : and until such enumeration shall be made, the state of New-Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New-York six, New-Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North-Carolina five, South-Carolina five, and Georgia three.

When vacaneies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

The House of Representatives shall choose their Speaker and other officers ; and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

Sec. 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years : and each senator shall have one vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one third may be chosen every second year : and if vacancies happen by resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Legislature of any state, the Executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, at the time of his election, be an inhabitant of that State for which he is elected.

The Vice-President of the United States, and the President of the Senate, but shall have no vote, unless the votes are equally divided.

The Senate shall choose their other officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the absence of the Vice-President, or when he shall exercise the office of President of the United States.

The Senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two thirds of the members present.

Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend farther than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States; but the party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

Sec. 4. The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives, shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing Senators.

The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

Sec. 5. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business: but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner, and under such penalties as each house may provide: Each house may determine the rules of its proceedings; punish its members for disorderly behaviour, and with the concurrence of two thirds, expel a member.

Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may in their judgment require secrecy: and the yeas and nays of the members of either house on any question shall at the desire of one fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

Neither house, during the session of Congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

Sec. 6. The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States, shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

Sec. 7. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives: but the senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.

Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate, shall, before it become a law, be presented to the President of the United States. If he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his objections to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill, shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the President within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

Every order, resolution, or vote to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment) shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two thirds of the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

Sec. 8. The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises, to pay the debts and provide for the common defence and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts and excises, shall be uniform throughout the United States.

To borrow money on the credit of the United States.

To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states, and with the Indian tribes.

To establish an uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States.

To coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures.

To provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States.

To establish post offices and post roads.

To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries.

To constitute tribunals inferior to the supreme court.

To define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offences against the law of nations.

To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water.

To raise and support armies : but no appropriations of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years.

To provide and maintain a navy.

To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces.

To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the union, suppress insurrections and repel invasions.

To provide for organizing, arming and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States, reserving to the States respectively, the appointment of the officers, and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress.

To exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular States, and the acceptance of Congress, become the seat of government of the United States, and to exercise like authority over all places purchased by the consent of the legislature of the state in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dock-yards, and other needful buildings—And

To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

Sec. 9. The migration or importation of such persons as any of the states now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the Congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

No bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed.

No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration herein before directed to be taken.

No tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any state.

No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one state over those of another, nor shall vessels bound to or from one state be obliged to enter, clear, or pay duties in another.

No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States. And no person holding any office of profit or trust under them, shall, without the consent of the Congress, accept of any present, emolument, office, or title, of any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign state.

Sec. 10. No state shall enter into any treaty, alliance or confederation, grant letters of mark and reprisal, coin money, emit bills of credit, make any thing but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts, pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, or grant any title of nobility.

No state shall, without the consent of Congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws, and the nett produce of all duties and imposts laid by any state, on imports or exports, shall be for the use of the treasury of the United States, and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and controul of the Congress. No state shall, without the consent of Congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops or ships of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another state, or with a foreign power, or engage in war unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

II.

Sec. 1. The executive power shall be vested in a president of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years, and, together with the vice-president, chosen for the same term, be elected as follows: Each state shall appoint in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the state may be entitled in the Congress: but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each ; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate.

The president of the senate shall in the presence of the senate and house of representatives open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted.

The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed ; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately chuse by ballot one of them for president ; and if no person have a majority, then from the five highest on the list the said house shall in like manner choose the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote. A quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the president, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vice-president. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the senate shall choose from them by ballot the vice-president.

The Congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes ; which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

No person except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States, at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall be eligible to the office of president ; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice-president, and the Congress may by law provide for the case of removal, death resignation or inability, both of the president, and vice-president, declaring what officer shall then act as president, and such officers shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a president shall be elected.

The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services, a compensation which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected. And he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States or any of them.

Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation: "I, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States."

Sec. 2. The president shall be commander in chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several States when called into the actual service of the United States: he may require the opinion, in writing, of the principal officer in each of the executive departments, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided, two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the supreme court, and all other officers of the United States, whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law. But the Congress may by law vest the appointment of such inferior officers as they think proper in the president alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

The president shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session.

Sec. 3. He shall from time to time give to the Congress information of the state of the union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient : He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them, and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper : He shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers : He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

Sec. 4. The president, vice-president and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

III.

Sec. 1. The judicial power of the United States, shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior court, shall hold their offices during good behaviour, and shall, at stated times, receive for their services, a compensation, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

Sec. 2. The judicial power shall extend to all cases, in law and equity, arising under this constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority. To all cases affecting ambassadors, or other public ministers and consuls. To all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction. To controversies to which the United States shall be a party. To controversies between two or more States ; between a state and citizens of another state ; between citizens of different states ; between citizens of the same state claiming lands under grants of different states, and between a state, or the citizens thereof, and foreign states, citizens or subjects.

In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state shall be a party, the supreme court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact.

with such exceptions, and under such regulations as the Congress shall make.

The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury; and such trial shall be held in the state where the said crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any state, the trial shall be at such place or places as the Congress may by law have directed.

Sec. 3. Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

The congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason, but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture, except during the life of the person attainted.

IV.

Sec. 1. Full faith and credit shall be given in each state to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other state. And the Congress may by general laws prescribe the manner in which such acts, records and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

Sec. 2. The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states.

A person charged in any state with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice, and be found in another state, shall on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled be delivered up to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime.

No person held to service or labour in one state under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall in consequence of any law or regulation therein be discharged from such service or labour, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labour may be due.

Sec. 3. New States may be admitted by Congress into this union; but no new state shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other state; nor any state be formed by the junction of two or more states, or parts of states, without the consent of the legislatures, of the states concerned as well as of the Congress.

The Congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States : and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States, or of any particular state.

Sec. 4. The United States shall guarantee to every state in this union a Republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and on application of the legislature, or of the executive when the legislature cannot be convened, against domestic violence.

V.

The Congress, whenever two thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this constitution, or on application of the legislatures of two thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the Congress : Provided, that no amendment which may be made, prior to the year 1808 shall in any manner effect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article, and that no state without its consent shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

VI.

All debts contracted and engagements entered into before the adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution as under the confederation.

This constitution and the Laws of the United State which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treatie made, or which shall be made, under the authority of th United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; an the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, any thin in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding.

The senators and representatives before-mentioned, ar the members of the several State legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, support this constitution ; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

VII.

The ratification of the conventions of nine States, shall be sufficient for the establishment of this constitution between the States so ratifying the same.

Done in convention, by the unanimous consent of the states present, the seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the twelfth. In witness whereof we have hereto subscribed our names.

MODE of transacting business at the CUSTOM-HOUSES of the UNITED STATES, and Extracts from the REVENUE-ACTS, for the direction of Merchants, Masters of Vessels, and others concerned.

THE Master of any vessel from a foreign port, shall deliver, on demand, to any officer or person lawfully authorised, who shall first come on board his ship or vessel, two manifests, signed by the master or person in command, specifying in words, and not in figures, a true account of the LADING which such vessel had on board at the port from whence she last sailed, and at the time of her sailing, or at any time since; the packages, marks and numbers, and to what port in the United States bound, and the names of the persons to whom the goods are consigned, or if to order, the names of the shippers: one of which manifests to be signed by the officer and returned to the master, to deliver at the Custom-House to the Collector, within forty-eight hours after his arrival in port. The master shall, within forty-eight hours after arrival in port, report to the Collector, the place from whence he last sailed, name and burthen of his vessel, deliver two manifests of his cargo, unless one hath been delivered as above, or the one certified by the officer as above, with the documents usual in the port from whence he came.

Form of a MANIFEST by the MASTER of a VESSEL.

"MANIFEST of the Cargo of the _____ whereof is master _____ last from the port of _____ [illegible]

"I do that this is to the best of my knowledge and belief, a just and true manifest of all the goods, wares and merchandize, on board the at the port of from which she last sailed, at the time of her sailing, or at any time since, of which vessel I am at present master."

PENALTY for each neglect or refusal to make entry as above, Five Hundred Dollars.

NO GOODS to be unloaded but in open day, or without a Permit, under penalty of 400 Dollars, disability from holding office for the term of seven years, and being advertised in gazette, and forfeiture of goods, and if above value of 400 dollars, of vessel and cargo.

GOODS to be unladen in fifteen days, or delivered to the Collector, except salt or coal, which may remain longer, on owner paying inspectors.

GOODS not agreeing with Manifest, or Manifest with delivery, the master forfeits two hundred dollars.

NO GOODS of foreign growth or manufacture, to be brought into the United States, unless by sea, and not in vessels under thirty tons, (unless now on their voyage) on forfeiture of goods and vessel (except to Louisville or Ohio.)

VESSELS in distress to report in forty-eight hours from arrival, to protest before a Notary-Public or Justice, in twenty-four hours, and if it appears necessary to the Collector, he may permit her to unload, on payment of duties on goods necessary to pay expences: necessity to be made appear to wardens, or others for the purpose authorised.

PERSONS having goods in any ship or vessel, to make entry with the Collector, of the number of packages, marks, numbers, and contents, or in bulk, of quantity and quality, with an account of the nett prime cost, and must produce the original invoice, (in the currency of the place from whence imported) and bill of lading.

PERSONS residing ten miles or upwards from port of entry, may make oath or affirmation to such entry before a justice of the peace.

Form of an Entry Inwards by the Importer or Consignee.

"Philadelphia, the of 1789.

IN the master, from

Marks & Numb.	Packages with Contents	Value.

THE IMPORTER or Consignee to qualify that the Entry contains the whole of the goods imported by him in said vessel which have come to his knowledge, and that the invoice produced is to the best of his knowledge and belief, the nett prime cost of said goods, and that if he shall thereafter discover any other, or greater quantity, he would make due report thereof.

THE VALUE of goods not to be extended in the entry, but left for the Collector to estimate.

DUTIES to be paid before permit, unless they exceed fifty dollars, in which case, they may be secured by bond, with one or more securities, payable for West-India goods in four months, Madeira wines in twelve months, other goods in six months, or the importer may deposit double the value of the duties in goods to secure payment of duties, which on failure of payment, are to be sold.

A DISCOUNT of ten per cent. of the duties to be allowed on goods imported in vessels built in, and owned by citizens of the United States, or in foreign vessels owned by citizens of the United States, on the 16th May, 1789, and since.

ALSO a discount of ten per cent. per annum for prompt payment of all duties above fifty dollars, for so much as exceeds that sum.

GOODS ad valorem to be valued by adding twenty per cent. to the actual cost, if from the Cape of Good Hope, or beyond, and ten per cent. if from any other place, exclusive of charges.

GOODS damaged, or without invoice, to be valued on oath or affirmation, by two persons, one chosen by the Collector, and the other by the party, or if the Collector doubts the valuation of such goods, they must be valued as before mentioned, or opened on suspicion of fraud, and if without invoice, stored till the invoice be received at option of the owner.

NO PERSON whose bond for duties is due and unpaid, to be allowed credit for duties.

BONDS for duties when due, to be prosecuted by the collector, and in case of death or insolvency, to have preference.

Constitution of the Connecticut Society for the promotion of freedom, and for the relief of persons unlawfully held in bondage.

IMRESSED with a sense of the inestimable worth and value of the excellent Constitution, Laws and Government of this State, and of the United States of America, and anxiously desirous that every description of men, who have obtained a residence among us, of whatever clime or colour, should quietly enjoy the freedom and happiness, which the beneficent Father of the human race has kindly allotted to us ; and having with grief and abhorrence long beheld a considerable number of our fellow-men groaning under the iron hand of slavery, many of whom are intitled by the wise and humane laws of our country to an exemption from this cruel bondage : And being desirous to co-operate in a systematic way with the several Societies which have been, or that may be hereafter formed in the United States, or elsewhere, for the purpose of promoting the abolition of slavery ;—the subscribers have associated themselves under the name and tile of—The Connecticut Society for the promotion of Freedom, and for the relief of persons unlawfully holden in bondage.

For effecting these purposes they have adopted the following CONSTITUTION :

1. The society shall meet annually at New-Haven, on the day succeeding the public Commencement of Yale-College. At which meeting there shall be chosen a President, Vice-President, Secretary and a Treasurer for the year ensuing.

2. The President, or in his absence the Vice-President shall preside in all the meetings, and subscribe all the acts of the society. The President, or in his absence the Vice-President, shall also have the power of calling a special Meeting of the society whenever he shall judge proper.—A special meeting of the society shall likewise be called at any time when four members of the society shall concur in requesting it.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the proceedings of the society.

4. The Treasurer shall keep all the monies which shall belong to the society; and shall pay all orders signed by the President or Vice-President; which orders shall be his vouchers for his expenditures.

5. At the said annual meeting, the society shall also choose a Committee of Correspondence, consisting of the Secretary and five members, whose duty and business it shall be to correspond with such persons and societies as may be necessary to promote the views of the society. They shall also be empowered to transact such other business as shall occur in the recess of the society, and report the same to each quarterly meeting.

6. There shall also be chosen at the annual meeting a committee of eight members, to solicit such donations, from persons who are well affected to the design of the institution, as may be necessary to promote the views of the society, which contributions shall be paid into the hands of the Treasurer from time to time at his request.

7. The society shall meet four times in the year, at such time and place as a majority shall appoint.

8. New members shall be admitted, and all questions decided by a majority of votes. In any case where the members are equally divided, the presiding officer shall have a casting vote.

At a meeting of the Connecticut Society for the promotion of freedom, and for the relief of persons unlawfully holden in bondage, holden at New-Haven on the 9th day of Sept. 1790.—A number of gentlemen from different parts of the State subscribed the Constitution, and were admitted members, and the following officers were chosen, viz.

The Rev. Dr. STILES, President.

David Austin, esq. Vice-President.

Timothy Jones, esq. Treasurer.

Simeon Baldwin, esq. Secretary.

Elizur Goodrich, esq.

Mark Leavenworth, esq.

} Committee to solicit and receive Donations in their respective counties.

At the above meeting the following Vote was passed :

VOTED, That the members of this society in the several towns to which they respectively belong, do by themselves or a committee of their choice, enroll the names, ages and possessors of such persons as have been born since the 1st of March, 1784, and who by law will be entitled to their freedom at the age of 25 years ; to examine whether the births of such persons have been recorded according to law—to enquire whether any persons are illegally holden in bondage—also whether the other laws of State relative to the gradual abolition of slavery are duly observed—and to look into the character and conduct of free Negroes and Mulattoes with respect to morality, industry and economy, and report to the society, or their standing committee.

DISCOVERY OF NORTH-AMERICA.

ALTHO' Columbus was the first discoverer of America, and ought to have had the honor of giving it his name, yet one Americus Vesputius, a native of Florence, who made a voyage thither some years after Columbus, gave name to this vast continent. Columbus confined his discoveries chiefly to the West-India islands, the gulph of Mexico, and the southern continent.

Some years after Columbus's first voyage, North-America was explored by Sebastian Cabot, from England, in 1497, who obtained a commission from Henry seventh, for discovering, settling, and possessing heathen countries. The first land he made was Nova-Scotia.

Sir Humphry Gilbert took possession of Newfoundland and St. Lawrence in 1583, and began the fishing trade.

The first settlement of Canada was made by Montieu du Mont, a Frenchman, in 1606. Quebec was taken in 1629, by some English adventurers ; but was resigned again to the French, by treaty, in 1632, and continued in their possession till it was taken by the English, under the command of General Wolfe, 1758.

Before the settlement of Virginia or New-York, Capt. Gosnold had, in 1602, explored Pisquataqua river, the eastern shore of New-England; likewise discovered and gave name to Elizabeth's islands and Martha's Vineyard.

When King James, in 1606, divided Virginia, by his letters patent, the territory between the 38th and 45th degrees of latitude, was called North-Virginia.

Several years afterwards, viz. in 1620, he incorporated a number of persons by the name of the 'Council established at Plymouth.' To this Company he made an absolute grant of all the lands in America, between the 40th and 48th degrees of north latitude, throughout the main land, from sea to sea; excepting only such lands as were at that time actually possessed by some other christian prince or state.

List of Governors of the late Colony of Plymouth, from the first Settlement of New-England, in 1620, till they were included in the Massachusetts Charter.

John Carver,	Edward Winslow,	Josiah Winslow,
William Bradford,	Thomas Prince,	Thomas Hinkley.

During the space of 71 years, they had no more than the above named six persons for Governors. Mr. Carver died the first year after their arrival, Mr. Bradford succeeded him, and was chosen annually from 1621, until he died in 1657, except in 1633, 1636, and 1644, when Mr. Winslow was chosen; and 1634, when Mr. Winslow succeeded, and continued till he died in 1680, he was succeeded by Mr. Hinkley, who held the place, except in the interruption by Governor Andros, until the junction with the Massachusetts in 1692.

OF CONNECTICUT.

IN the year 1631, Robert earl of Warwick, president of the Council of Plymouth, granted to lord Say and Seal, to lord Brook and others, a tract of land extending from Narraganset river, 40 leagues on the sea coast; and thence through the main land, from the Western Ocean to the South Sea. This was the first grant to Connecticut. Smaller grants, from the first patentees, were afterwards made to particular people ; in consequence of which many settlements were made.

New-Haven and Connecticut were separate governments till the reign of Charles the second ; when by agreement they were both incorporated, by the name of ' the Governor and Company of Connecticut.' The charter by which they were united still continues to be the basis of their government.

The trade of Connecticut is principally to the West-India islands, and is carried on in vessels from 60 to 150 tons. The exports consist of horses, mules, oxen, staves, hoops, pine boards, oak-plank, corn, beef, pork, &c. They also have a considerable number of coasting vessels employed in carrying the produce of the state to other states, consisting of wheat, rye, corn, oats, butter, cheese, cyder, flax, hemp, &c. The soil is well calculated for pasture and mowing.

Connecticut is 82 miles in length, and 57 in breadth, and contains upwards of 200,000 inhabitants. They enjoy a fertile soil, and are truly republican, pursuing their interest in promoting manufactures, commerce, agriculture and the sciences.

Connecticut has been highly distinguished by its having a succession of Governors, eminent both for their religious and political accomplishments. The following is a list of their venerable names.

Governors for the Colony of New-Haven.

1639, Theophilus Eaton,	1662, William Leet, who
1659, Francis Newman,	continued till 1665.

In 1665, the Colonics of New-Haven and Connecticut united, and governor Winthrop was chosen governor.

UNITED STATES.

Treasury Department, Sept. 20, 1790.

IT is hereby made known, that the following arrangement has been adopted towards carrying into execution the Act, making provision for the debt of the United States, viz.

Loan-Office Certificates, and those issued by the Commissioners for the adjustment of accounts in the several States, will be receivable only at the Treasury and by the respective commissioners of Loans within the States in which they were respectively issued. The Certificates issued by the Register of the Treasury, by the Pay-Master General and commissioner of Army Accounts, by the Commissioners for the adjustment of the Accounts of the Quarter-Master's, Commissary's, Hospital, Cloathing, and Marine Departments, Indents on Interest, and Bills of old Emission, will be receivable indiscriminately at the Treasury and by the Commissioners of all the States. The situation of the Checks has dictated this arrangement for the greater security of the public against impositions by forged or counterfeit paper, and the details which have been adopted from the same consideration for the execution of the business are such, that it will give facility and dispatch, if applications from the holders of Certificates of the Register of the Treasury and of the Paymaster General, and Commissioner of Army Accounts, and of the Commissioner of the five Departments above mentioned, are made in the first instance at the Treasury; and if applications from the Holders of Loan Office Certificates; and Certificates issued by the Commissioners for the adjustment of Accounts in the respective States, are made in like manner to the Commissioners of Loans within the States in which they were issued. Transfers can afterwards be made to any office that the Proprietors of these Certificates may desire.

Treasury Department, Sept. 28, 1790.

THE following regulations, which have been adopted towards carrying into execution the act, making provision for the debt of the United States, are announced for the information of the public creditors.

WHEN a transfer is to be made from one person to another, the certificate or certificates of the debt to be transferred, must be produced at the proper office, in order that the same may be cancelled, and a new one, or new ones issue, as the case shall require.

When a transfer is desired from one office to another, application must in the first instance be made to the office where the credit exists, whereupon the certificate or certificates of the debt to be transferred will be cancelled, and a special one granted, as a voucher to the Secretary of the Treasury; upon the production and delivery of which to him a warrant will issue to the office, to which the debt is to be transferred, where the business will be completed. The form (A) at foot hereof, has been adopted for letters of attorney, to make transfers, which, and the directions for completing it, it is expected will be carefully observed.

In every case of a transfer of the subscribed or funded debt, the new certificate will bear interest, only from the first day of the quarter, in which the transfer is made. The unpaid interest which may have accrued prior to that quarter, will be paid only to the person, who was stockholder at the time it accrued, or to his special assignee.

Fourteen days before the expiration of each quarter, the books of each office will be closed; so that no transfers will be made, nor except at the Treasury, will any subscriptions be received, or old certificates exchanged for new ones, on the application of non-subscribers, during that period. Those intending to become subscribers to the proposed Loan, who do not subscribe, prior to the commencement of any such period—or those intending not to subscribe, who do not present their old certificates to be exchanged, or if holders of certificates of the Register of the Treasury, who do not notify to the Treasury their intention not to subscribe, prior to such commencement of such period, will not receive the interest, which may have accrued antecedently, 'till the end of the quarter in which their subscriptions are made, or in which their certificates are exchanged, or in which they shall so notify their intention not to subscribe. This, the proper distribution of the funds, and the preservation of order render indispensable.

On the subscribed or funded debt, interest as it becomes due, will be paid without production of the certificates if sued for the same. On the unsubscribed debt, if any there shall be, the production of the certificates will be necessary, in order to the receipt of the interest, and an indorsement of the payment of it upon the certificates. This however, in consideration of the risk and inconvenience of transmission, will not be required of those who hold certificates of the Register of the Treasury, and reside out of the United States. The form (B) at foot hereof, of a letter of attorney for receiving interest, and the directions therewith, it is expected will be carefully pursued.

DIRECTIONS.

IF the power is to extend to the whole of the stock, the word 'all' is to be inserted after the word 'transfer.' If only to part, the particular sum is to be inserted, with the addition of the words 'being part of.'

If the power is to extend only to a certain species of stock, it may be expressed in the different cases by inserting in the blank between the words 'the' and 'Stock' the words 'funded Six per Cent.' (which will designate the Stock bearing a present Interest) or the words, 'funded Three per Cent.' (which will designate the Three per Cent. stock,) or the word 'Deferred' (which will designate the Stock bearing Interest at the end of ten Years) or the word 'unfunded' (which will designate the unsubscribed part of the debt.)

If no power of substitution is desired to be given, the whole that relates to it, to be omitted; the place of abode, and quality of each witness, to be written against his name.

The acknowledgment may be taken before any Judge of a Court of the United States, or of a Superior Court of Law or Equity in any State, or of a County Court, or before the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of any place; or before a Notary Public.

In the acknowledgment, if the Seal of a Court, or Corporation, is to be affixed, the words 'caused to be' may precede the word 'affixed,' the blank immediately following to be filled with a designation of the Seal; as, that it is the Seal of a certain Court, naming it; or the Seal of a certain Corporation, naming it; or the Seal of Office of the party before whom the acknowledgment is taken, if he has one; or if he has none, with the words 'my Seal.'

If there be no public or official Seal to the acknowledgment, proof of the execution of the Power must be made by Oath or Affirmation of one of the Witnesses, to be taken before some person duly authorized at the place where the transfer is to be made.

ALL Masters of vessels from foreign ports are, within 24 hours after their arrival, to make report at the nearest Custom-house office, and within 48 hours, a further report to the Collector, of the name, burthen and lading of his vessel, whether stowed loose or in packages, the marks, numbers and contents of each, the place and person to whom consigned, and the place where taken in, of what country built, from what place she last sailed, and who was and is master: At the time of delivering the manifest, the master is to declare to the truth thereof, and that no part of her lading, since her departure from the place she last sailed, has been landed, unladed or otherwise removed from on board her; and further, that in case he shall afterwards know of any goods, other than reported, he will forthwith make report to the Collector.

Masters of vessels neglecting to report, delivering their manifests, or taking the oath, are liable, for every offence, to forfeit the sum of 1000 dollars.

Vessels of war, and public packets carrying dispatches, are exempt from making report.

No Goods to be unloaded but in open day, or without a Permit, under penalty of 400 dollars, disability from holding office for the term of seven years, and being advertised in gazette, and forfeiture of goods, and if above the sum of 400 dollars, of vessel, &c.

If any part of the cargo shall be unladen, for any purpose whatever (except in distress) the commander on board forfeits 1000 dollars, with the goods remaining on board.

Goods to be unladen in fifteen days, or delivered to the Collector, except salt or coal, which may be continued longer, on the master or owner paying inspectors.

Goods not agreeing with manifest, or manifest with delivery, the master to forfeit 500 dollars.

No Goods of foreign growth or manufacture to be bro't into the U. S. unless by sea, and not in vessels under 30 tons, on forfeiture of goods and vessel (except within the district of Louisville.)

Vessels in distress to report in 48 hours from arrival, to protest before a Notary-Public or Justice, in 24 hours, and if it appears necessary to the Collector, he may permit to unload, on payment of the duties on goods necessary to pay expences; necessity to be made appear to wardens, or others for the purpose authorized.

Duties to be paid before permit, unless they exceed 50 dollars, in which case, they may be secured by bond with one or more sureties, payable for West-India goods in four months, Madeira wines in twelve months, other goods in six months; or the importer may deposit double the value of the duties in goods to secure the payment of duties, which, on failure of payment, are to be sold.

Goods ad valorem to be valued by adding 20 per cent. to the actual cost, if from the Cape of Good Hope or beyond, and 10 per ct. if from any other place, exclusive of charges.

Goods damaged, or without invoice, to be valued on oath or affirmation, by two persons, one chosen by the Collector, and the other by the party.

No person whose bond for duties is due and unpaid, to be allowed credit for duties.

Bonds for duties, when due, to be prosecuted; and in case of insolvency, to have preference.

Goods removed before weighed or gauged, without consent of the Collector, or other proper officer, are forfeited.

Persons knowingly buying goods liable to seizure, forfeit double value ; goods found on search, which have not paid duties, forfeited.

Drawback allowed at the place of entry only, on all goods exported to any country without the United States in the original packages, and within six months after payment made, or security given, for duties, retaining one per cent. of duties paid, and excepting where duties do not amount to 20 dollars at the least.

Bonds with one or more sureties to be given, that such goods shall not be re-landed within the United States.

Goods not entitled to drawback until after 6 months, & until the exporter produce certificate in writing of two respectable merchants at the foreign port or place where landed, together with the oath of the master and mate of the vessel, certifying the delivery thereof.

Officers may seize within or without their district.

Persons giving or offering bribe, forfeit from 200 to 2000 dollars.

Captain or owner making false oath of entry, suffers a fine not exceeding 1000 dollars, and not more than 12 months imprisonment.

Collector, Naval Officer & Surveyor, or person specially appointed by either of them for the purpose, may enter any vessel in which they have reason to suspect goods subject to duty are concealed, and if they have cause to suspect concealment in any dwelling-house, store, or other place, on application on oath or affirmation, to any justice of peace, have warrant to enter, in the day time only, and seize.

All penalties, fines and forfeitures, are to be one moiety to the United States, the other to be paid in equal parts to the Collector, Naval-Officer and Surveyor of the port where the same had occurred ; in districts where there is one Officer, he has the whole moiety. If the forfeiture is recovered by information given by any other than a Custom House officer, one half of said moiety to be given to the informer, the remainder to be disposed of as aforesaid.

In case of vessel cast away, or other accident, to produce a protest in due form, and in case such protest cannot be had, the oath or affirmation of the exporter, or other proof to the satisfaction of the collector.

Goods exported for drawback, and re-landed, subject to seizure, together with the vessel, boats, &c. and persons concerned to suffer six months imprisonment.

In order to secure the collection of these duties, boats or cutters are to be equipped, not exceeding ten, to be employed for the protection of the revenue, the expence not to exceed 10,000 dollars, to be paid out of the duties and tonnage on vessels. Each of said boats or cutters to have one Master, and not more than three Mates, four Mariners and two boys; the Master to be allowed 30 Dollars per month, 1st Mate 20, 2d Mate 16, 3d Mate 14, each Mariner 8, and each boy 4 dollars. The Officers of these boats or cutters to be Officers of the customs, with authority to go on board any vessel within 4 leagues of the coasts of the United States. Small open row or sail boats, with a requisite number of persons, are also to be provided for the use of the Surveyors and Inspectors in going on board vessels, for the better detection of frauds.

Substance of the Coasting Act.

ALL vessels to be intitled to the benefits of American vessels, must be registered or enrolled, & have their names and the names of the places to which they belong, painted on their sterns, on a black ground with white letters, at least three inches in length, on forfeiture of paying foreign tonnage.

Registers to be granted to none but American built vessels, owned wholly by citizens thereof—or owned by citizens on and since 16th May 1789, and commanded by citizens of the United States. The Surveyor having first certified their exact tonnage. Bonds to be given for preservation of Registers.

All vessels built in the United States for foreigners, to be recorded in the Collectors Office, on oath.

American vessels (of the above description) of less than 20 tons, and not less than 5 tons (qualified as before) shall annually procure a licence, which will exempt them from entering or clearing for one year. Masters or owners to give bond, that such vessels shall not be concerned in any illicit trade. And before they can renew such licence, must make oath that they have not been concerned in any illicit trade.

Masters and owners of American coasting vessels of 20 tons or upwards, shall have licence to trade or fish for one year, tonnage being first paid, and bond given that the vessels shall not be employed in any illicit trade—on failure to procure a licence must pay foreign tonnage.

Masters bound to foreign ports, to deliver a Manifest of the cargo, on oath, before cleared out. Commander or owner forfeits 200 dollars, for sailing without clearance.

Masters of American coasting vessels having on board foreign goods, &c. of 200 dollars value, or 400 gallons of rum, and bound from one district to another, must deliver duplicate regular Manifests of whole cargo, on oath (one of which manifests shall be return'd certified to the master) before permit can be obtained to depart. If not having foreign goods or rum on board, no manifests are required, but they may proceed to any district in the same state or next adjoining state.

American coasting vessels, if bound to any other than adjoining state or district in the same state, and if having American goods or produce on board, must deliver duplicate regular manifests on oath, (one of which will be returned certified) before permit to proceed can be obtained.

Coasting vessels (as before described) from same, or adjoining state, before permission to land the cargo can be obtained, must deliver a manifest thereof on oath, within 24 hours after arrival, Sundays excepted.

In all cases masters of coasting vessels, must within 24 hours after arrival, Sundays excepted, deliver the manifest which was received from the Collector, authenticated, before permit to land goods can be obtained.

If a master of any vessel having goods, &c. on board of 200 dollars value, sails without certified manifest and permit, he forfeits 400 dollars and goods : Vessels bound to a district in same, or adjoining state, and having on board American goods, &c. rum, or other ardent spirits, excepted.

Licensed vessels, if bound to a foreign port, must deliver up their licence—and in case of neglect, the master forfeits 100 dollars.

Vessels not intitled to Register or Enrollment, and fraudulently using either, are forfeited.

False swearing to be punished, as wilful and corrupt perjury. Persons forging or altering official documents, to forfeit 500 dollars.

A N

ALMANACK,

For the Year 1791.

ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1791.

THERE will be four ECLIPSES this year, in the following order, viz.

I. The first will be a remarkable Eclipse of the Sun, April 3, visible. The center of the shade will pass over the diurnal path of our vertex, nigh the time at which the middle of the Eclipse will happen; but the Moon being nigh her apogee, her apparent diameter will be less than that of the Sun, consequently it cannot be total, but will be annular, i. e. a ring of light will be seen round the Moon's body. By calculation as follows:

	h. m.	Mean time in the morning.
Beginning at	6 20
Begins to be annular,	7 29
Middle,	7 31
End of annular appearance,	7 34
End of the Eclipse,	8 54

Duration 2h. 34m.

Duration of annular appearance 5m.

Digits eclipsed 11.2.

II. The second will be of the Moon, April 18, a few minutes past noon, invisible.

III. The third will be of the Sun, September 27, at 7 o'clock in the afternoon, invisible.

IV. The fourth and last will be of the Moon, October 11, visible.—By calculation as follows, viz.

Beginning at	-	-	7h. 20m. 24sec.
Middle,	-	-	8 51 17
End,	-	-	10 22 10

Duration 3h. 1m. 46sec.

Digits eclipsed, 8.4 on the north side.

JANUARY hath 31 days.

New moon 4 day, noon,	Full moon 20 day, 2 morn.
First quart. 12 day, 3 morn.	Last quart. 27 day, 2 morn.
